

Trying to get around Glendale? We've got you.

YOUR TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS

WALK

Walking in Glendale

With a high Walk Score, taking a stroll through Glendale is easy. Many of your daily tasks may not require a car and walking is a free way to get around and learn about your city.

BIKE

Biking in Glendale

Glendale is working to create a safe and all-abilities bicycle network that connects local destinations and the region. You can also use community-created routes to get around on your wheels.

BUS

Riding Glendale Beeline

Hop on one of Glendale Beeline's 12 routes that serve the cities of Glendale and La Cañada Flintridge. Need to go farther? Beeline can connect you to regional transit service provided by Metro buses.

TRAIN

Taking Metrolink

Metrolink is Southern California's regional rail provider that can take you from Glendale up to the Valley, down to DTLA, and beyond. Check out how Go Glendale can make your first roundtrip free!

SHARE

Carpooling and using Metro Micro

Metro Vanpool can subsidize your carpool or match you with commuters who share your schedule. Need something on demand? Metro Micro offers door-to-door local trips.

Get access to all the links on this flyer and learn more about your transportation options!

We're here to help!

Have a question about transportation? Ask us! Go Glendale is here to make getting around Glendale more active, fun, and sustainable.

Email: contact@goglendale.org

Website: goglendale.org